

Task: Now using your plan, write your script or create a storyboard for your movie. What key characters will you include? What is the main feature (part) of the film? What is the end result? Will you have a dramatic ending? If so what?

Moving the Slate

Task: Imagine you are going to cast a movie located at Honister in the past. It could be a movie to inform people of what life and work was like there, or it could be an action/disaster movie. Write in the boxes what ideas or scenes you want to include in this movie. You can use the title below, or come up with your own.
