Task: Now using your plan, write your script or create a storyboard for your movie. What key characters will you include? What is the main feature (part) of the film? What is the end result? Will you have a dramatic ending? If so what?
Task: Imagine you are going to cast a movie located at Honister in the past. It could be a movie to inform people of what life and work was like there, or it could be an action/disaster movie. Write in the boxes what ideas or scenes you want to include in this movie. You can use the title below, or come up with your own.

Moving the Slate